Dear Pinar,

Hope this email finds you well. I'm writing to you from Al Jazeera English's op-ed desk. We have come across your Twitter thread explaining the sexual harassment you experienced at your place of work and wondered whether you would be interested in writing a commentary for us on this issue.

What we have in mind is an article that would briefly explain what you have been through and why you chose to make your accusations public, but focus mostly on what you think should be done to protect women from harassment and abuse in academic settings in the future.

Looking forward to hearing your thoughts on this,

All the best,

Birce
